COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

Louisburg Female College,
FRANKLIN CO., N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF 1868 will begin on the 13th day of August.

The success of the Institution, under its present administration, has far surpassed the expectations of its most sanguine friends.

CHARGES PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:

Board (exclusive of washing and lights) and Tuition in the regular English course and Ancient Languages, $100. Extra Studies moderate. $50 in advance,—remainder at the end of the session.

ADVANTAGES.

An able, energetic, and successful Faculty; an extensive and wisely arranged course of study; a judicious and thorough system of instruction; a select Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; a good Library; fine Musical Instruments; a beautiful, pleasant, and healthful location; a large, commodious building, with rooms well ventilated and well warmed in winter; excellent water, good fare; kind attention to the wants of the pupils; mild and efficient government, and ample Religious privileges.

For Circulars, containing full particulars, apply to T. M. JONES, President.

June 15-tf

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

A CARD.

SEVERAL months ago, I purchased the entire stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones, never being myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Business Directory. But as some persons seem, erroneously, to consider it a partnership or to bind the interest of the former firm with my own I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone, unless some part or should be taken hereafter. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS, STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest CASH prices.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET!

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THURSDAY, Aug. 13, 1868.

At 10 o'clock, the hour designated for the assembling of the Convention, the spacious Hall was crowded, in every part, by an immense concourse of delegates and spectators—the right and front galleries being filled with the fair ladies of the City.

On motion of the Hon. Thomas Bragg, of Raleigh, Capt. Joseph J. Davis, of Franklin, was invited to take the Chair as temporary Chairman, and, on further motion of the same gentleman, Messrs. Seaton Gales and J. A. Engelhard were requested to act as Secretaries pro tem. The motions were respectively adopted amid much applause.

Capt. Davis, on taking the Chair, expressed his grateful acknowledgments for the honor done him. He was proud to see present men of all former schools of political sentiment, united in a common patriotic purpose. He felt that no old recollections of party,—no memories of former contests,—would be allowed to come in to mar the great and general harmony of the occasion. (Applause.) Remembering that, through our agency, the Government must be restored to its ancient purity, he appealed to the Convention, by all they held dear, by every high and sacred consideration, by the recollections of a glorious ancestry, by their regard for the women of the land, who had come to grace this great occasion with their presence, to unite in counsel, in purpose and in action. (Great applause.)

On motion of the Hon. W. N. H. Smith, of Hertford, the Secretaries were directed to call over the list of counties of the State, in order to ascertain the number represented and the names of delegates.

At the suggestion of Gov. Bragg, it was resolved that, as the names of counties were called, some gentleman from each county represented should announce the fact of representation, and that the names should subsequently be handed in. This was rendered necessary, as there were many hundreds outside of the Hall who were unable to obtain admittance.

The following counties were found to be represented as follows:

[The Secretaries would here remark that the delegations from a number of counties have not yet been handed in, and that the lists from many others are manifestly imperfect. All that have been handed in, however, appear below, and all errors and deficiencies will be cheerfully corrected:]

WAKE.—900 delegates

Rev. Wm. E. Pell stated that he saw present gentlemen from New York, Pennsylvania, and other States, and he moved that they be invited to seats on this floor.

On motion of Mr. Dancy, of Edgecombe, the motion was amended by inviting them to seats on the rostrum; and, as amended, it was enthusiastically adopted.

Whereupon the gentlemen—Messrs. Robbins, of N. Y., and Walker, of Pennsylvania,—came forward; and, subsequently, Messrs. J. B. Hunter, of Virginia, and Jno. L. Logan, of S. C., were also invited to positions on the stage.

On motion of W. J. Yates, Esq, of Mecklenburg, the Chairman was directed to appoint a Committee of one from each Congressional District, to recommend permanent officers of this Convention;

Whereupon the Chairman designated Messrs. W J Yates, of Mecklenburg, H A Gilliam, of Chowan, F W Kerchner, of New Hanover, W A Jenkins, of Warren, H T Jordan, of Person, E C Yellowly, of Pitt, and R M Stokes, of Buncombe.

As soon as the Committee had retired, vociferous calls from all parts of the House brought the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., to the rostrum, and his presence was the signal for tumultuous applause.

Mr. Turner said that he came forward merely for the purpose of excusing himself. He had been confined to his bed for nearly ten days, and nothing but a meeting of this character could have brought him out of his bed. Besides, even if he were well, he would hesitate to address the Convention, when there were present such men as Bragg, Venable, Graham, Haywood, Biggs, and others, whom he might name. But he could not refrain from expressing his gratification that the white men of North Carolina, from the mountains to the sea shore, were aroused. It was time—high time—that they were.

Mr. Turner proceeded, in a graphic and forcible manner, to describe the humiliation to which the people had been subjected, especially at the instance of the Bureau, and recited many evidences of its tyrannical exactions. He asserted that, for the past five hundred years, no people had ever labored under such a despotism, and it was as much their fault, perhaps, as it was that of their oppressors, in that they—the people, and, especially, the leading public men,—had been so quiet and tamely submissive under the gross and arbitrary impositions which had been put upon them.

Mr. T. also referred, in his trenchant and scathing style, to the existing regime in North Carolina, in its several departments, Executive, Legislative and Judicial, and was particularly severe upon the recent letter of the Chief Justice of the State.—

He dissected the character and qualifications of many of the present Radical officials, and declared that one might as well expect that crime would be rewarded hereafter, as to suppose that such a set of men could maintain the ascendancy in North Carolina.

Mr. T. denounced the Force Bill of the present rebel Legislature in unmeasured terms, and handled its guilty authors and instigators without gloves.

His remarks were protracted by the repeated demands of the audience that he should "Go on," notwithstanding that he several times essayed to stop. He was greeted throughout with great enthusiasm.

W. J. Yates, Esq., from the Committee on permanent organization, here submitted the following report, viz:

The Committee appointed to nominate officers for the permanent organization of this Convention respectfully submit the following names for the respective offices:

FOR PRESIDENT.

Col R H Cowan, of New Hanover.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

1st Dist F B Satterthwaite, of Beaufort.
2nd " John D Whitford, of Craven,
3rd " A D McLean, of Harnett,
4th " Henry G Williams, of Nash
5th " A M Scales, of Rockingham.
6th " David Schenck, of Lincoln.
7th " R M Stokes, of Buncombe.

FOR SECRETARIES.

Seaton Gales, of Wake.
J. A. Engelhard, of New Hanover.
Wm Biggs, of Edgecombe.
Jordan Stone, of Halifax.
Robt Furman, of Granville.
R A Shotwell, of Rutherford.
W A Hearne, of Wilson.
T C Evans, of Milton.

The report was unanimously adopted,—the vast concourse manifesting their approbation by repeated cheers. The temporary Chairman designated Messrs. Yates and Jordan, of the Committee, to conduct Col. Cowan to the Chair, and, on his making his appearance, Capt. Davis, in a few neat remarks, on retiring, presented the permanent President to the body.

Col Cowan said that this mark of confidence, this high compliment, was as unexpected as it was undeserved. He spoke the words of truth and soberness, when he said that he had no idea of being thus honored until within a few moments past, and he could not find words to express his sense of this honor. He begged the Convention, in the name of his county, which had come up here with her hundred delegates, this day, to accept his thanks.

Gentlemen, (said Col C.) the occasion is a momentous one. We stand in the midst of great events. The American Republic is threatened with Revolution. Every patriot must come to the rescue, and we have met to make preparations for the great issue. He said that he felt that they would go into the battle, with a patriotic determination to save the country from anarchy and overthrow, and, if they should fall, they could, at least, like the soldier falling on the field, wrap the flag for which they fought around them, and proudly die.

It is charged that we are still disloyal, and that it requires the force of a Brownlow to keep us in the line of safe "reconstruction." God pity the heartless cowards who make the charge! I deny it, (said he,) and, in the name of the State, I appeal to her proud record to sustain me. I appeal to the history of the past three years, if, in perfect honor, like brave and true men, her people have not discharged every duty, and submitted with proper fortitude to every exaction, required of them. When we laid down our arms, we gave up all thought of further resistance. Thank God the honesty of that surrender, on our part, has not been tarnished by the breath of honorable suspicion. Congress had violated its faith—and an infamous party, whose infamous essence and embodiment is North Carolina was its present government, was engaged in carrying out its cruel and oppressive behests,—but he challenged the world to show the first instance wherein North Carolina had broken faith.

Col. C. recounted the various exactions that had been required at our hands, and the manner in which they had been performed. "It (said he) we have sinned, oh! I say we have grievously suffered." He drew a touching picture of the suffering South. She stood among the graves of her heroic sons and only asked the poor privilege of being let alone to make bread for her surviving children. Never was there a people so much in need of Peace,—so anxiously bent on Peace. Never a people so ready to sacrifice everything save honor for Peace. Never a people so basely slandered. "Oh, my friends," (said the eloquent speaker,) "if the Radicals were half so anxious for Peace as we are, it would long since have prevailed. They have had all the power—two thirds in Congress—have had the strength to abridge the prerogatives of the Supreme Court,—have had the command of the army, with their candidate for the Presidency at its head,—at all times and in all things, they have had infinite power for evil. Why cannot they sometimes exert an influence for good?"

Col. Cowan appealed to the Democrats and Conservatives of the State,—constituting, as they do, its worth and intelligence, to appreciate the necessity of zealous, watchful labor. If we are to have a country we can call our own,—if this last great experiment is not to be regarded as a failure,—the selfish, mutinous, murderous crew must be driven from the decks of the ship of State! (Cries of "yes! yes!")

No party ever had such prospects, and he predicted the triumphant election of the National Democratic nominees. First, the Radicals believe it and show it,—show it by their trembling fear and desperation of fraud. Secondly, the character of our ticket is the guarantee of its success. Col. Cowan here paid a glowing tribute to Seymour and Blair, and concluded with an earnest and beautiful invocation to duty, which was like the blast of a silver bugle. At every stage of his remarks, he was cheered and applauded.

The Vice President and Secretaries then came forward and assumed their respective positions.

On motion of Gov. Bragg, the President was requested to appoint a Committee of fifteen, to be designated the Committee on Resolutions, &c. Subsequently, the following gentlemen were announced, viz: Hon. Thomas Bragg, Hon. W. N. H. Smith, Col. D. M. Carter, Jno. C. Washington, Esq., Dr. L. W. Martin, A. A. McKoy, Esq., Col. Jno. D. Taylor, Col. E. G. Haywood, Hon. A. W. Venable, F. E. Shober, Esq., W. J. Yates, Esq., W. D. Bethel, Esq., Ralph Gorrell, Esq., W. L. Love, Esq., and W. W. Fleming, Esq.

On motion of J. E. Moore, Esq., of Martin, the rules of order of the last House of Commons were adopted for the government of the Convention.

[It was here suggested that the number of persons outside, who were unable to get in the Hall, was immense, and that they were desirous of having speakers sent out to them. The President of the Convention requested Col. W A. Jenkins, of Warren, to comply with this desire of the people.]

Mr. Dancy, of Edgecombe, moved that a Committee of fifteen be appointed by the Chair, whose duty it should be to nominate and recommend two candidates for Electors for the State at large. Carried; and

The President subsequently designated the following gentlemen:

Messrs Jno S Dancy, Chairman, J E Moore, of Martin, Chas Latham, of Washington, L W Humphrey, of Wayne, Asa Biggs, of Edgecombe, Wm Eaton, of Warren, Dr Samuel A Williams, of Granville, J A Richardson, of Bladen, V V Richardson, of Columbus, B E Withers, of Caswell, Thos Wilson, of Forsyth, B S Guion, of Lincoln, J M Hutchison, of Mecklenburg, R A Shotwell, of Rutherford, R M Stokes, of Buncombe.

Loud calls for Wm. M. Robbins, Esq., the gallant and able Senator from Rowan, brought that gentlemen to the rostrum, where, for more than an hour, he enchained and delighted the vast auditory with a powerful, earnest and eloquent effort. His dissection of the Force Bill of the rebel Legislature was masterly and overwhelmingly, his exposition of Radical corruption most searching, and his allusions to the ladies in the finest taste and spirit.

[We find here that we must defer, in order to get in the regular proceedings, any lengthy reference to the various speeches, until another day. The whole Convention was so glorious an affair, that our readers can best, perhaps, have it in broken doses.]

After an effort, marked by his patriotism and statesmanship, from the Hon. William A. Graham, which shall be fully noticed hereafter,

On motion of Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Wayne, the Convention took a recess until 4½ o'clock.

4½ O'CLOCK, P. M.

The President took the Chair at the appointed hour.

Neither of the Committees being ready to report, the Hon. Asa Biggs, in reply to the repeated demands of the Convention, addressed the body, briefly but earnestly and ably, in an effort, which was received with great delight by the audience.

Capt. James C. Dobbin, of Fayetteville, was next called forward. We despair, at any time, of being able to do justice to Mr. Dobbin's remarkable effort. For lofty eloquence, burning satire, humor, and elocution, we have rarely heard it excelled. Mr. D. is a born orator, and is destined to take a high stand, hereafter. And Cumberland has cause to be proud of him.

Tumultuous calls brought Plato Durham, Esq., to his feet, but that gentleman excused himself on account of the lateness of the hour.

The Committee on the nomination of Electors for the State at large here reported the names of the Hon. JAMES W OSBORNE, of Mecklenburg, and Capt. JOS. J. DAVIS, of Franklin; which nominations were ratified and approved amid prolonged acclamations.

Capt. Davis, Col. J. A. Richardson, of Bladen, and S. T. Williams, Esq., of Granville, successively yielded to calls upon them, and addressed the Convention ably and acceptably.

The latter gentleman was interrupted by the return of the Committee on Resolutions, who, through their Chairman, Gov. Bragg, reported a series, which were read; when, before a vote on them,

On motion of Plato Durham, Esq., the Convention adjourned until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

FRIDAY MORNING, Aug. 14th, 1868.

The Convention was called to order, at the designated hour, by the President, who announced the first question for consideration to be the resolutions reported by the Committee on yesterday.

Upon motion of Judge Biggs, the resolutions were again read by the Chairman of the Committee,—enthusiastic applause greeting each section as it was read.

On motion of Mr. Wright, of Wayne, they were unanimously adopted. They are as follows:

We, the delegates of the Democratic and Conservative people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, do resolve:

1st. That we approve of the nomination by the National Democratic Convention of Horatio Seymour for President and Frank P. Blair, Jr., for Vice President of the United States. That in these men we recognize statesmen of experience and eminent ability, of sound political principles, of unsullied public and private character, and unbounded patriotism, and as such, we recommend them to the hearty support of the people of North Carolina.

2nd. That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the said Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear. The issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government, as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the eleven troubled States of the South.

3rd. That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partisans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetrating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South, they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule, without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

4th. That it is our frank purpose now, and has been, since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful government. And we do proclaim, that in asking recognition, on terms of equality, in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to reestablish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the Government.

5th. That we have seen with indignation the complete overthrow of our late excellent system of State government and laws, and the adoption of others in their stead hereto fore unknown to our people, unsuited to their condition, and utterly adverse to their habits, their wishes and their interests; and with this change, has come the election, to high places of profit and trust, of men, in most instances, without character or qualifications, and not a few of whom are mere adventurers from abroad, having no interest in common with the people of the State, no fitness whatever for the stations which they have reached, by means most unworthy and disreputable.

6th. That the attempt by the Governor of this State, aided by his extreme partizans, in and out of the Legislature, to have himself clothed with authority to appoint, organize, equip and keep on foot, a large standing force of not less than 6000 men, to be selected and officered and commanded by him, with power to any member of the said force to arrest any citizen, without authority or warrant from any civil officer or magistrate, was a measure clearly violative of the Constitution of the United States as well as that of the State, dangerous to the liberties of the people, and well calculated, if not intended, to produce bloodshed in our midst, and, as such, it deserves to be reprobated by all well disposed citizens of the State.

7th. That the measure subsequently introduced, and which is now pending and will in all probability be adopted, however artfully disguised, is for the same measure, under another name, with one or two of its objectionable features altered, but which yet clothes the Governor and his creatures and partizans with hitherto unheard of powers, which are susceptible of great and dangerous abuse in the hands of men who have shown but too plainly their purpose to rule the people of this State by the bayonet, and, as we believe, to attempt the control of the next election by that means.

We must earnestly urge demand to the people of the State, and especially to our political friends, to give no occasion or excuse for the use of military force, but never the less to yield none of their just rights.

8th. That the Governor of this State having proclaimed it as the policy of the Radical party, to suffer no one to hold any office, appointment or place in the State, however humble, who will not lend his aid and promise his support to that party, and which policy he and his political friends are now vigorously enforcing to affect the exercise of the elective franchise, it is the sense of this Convention that the people have the right to counteract such policy by all lawful means, if they think proper to do so. That any citizen of the State, therefore, has a manifest right, of which he cannot be lawfully deprived, to employ or not to employ, or cease to employ, any person whatever, when any existing contract terminates; and that any attempt on the part of the Legislature, by any pretended law, to deprive any citizen of such right, or to impose any penalty or penalties for so doing, will be in violation of the constitutional rights of the citizen.

9th. That to obtain success in the approaching Presidential election, every effort should be made by our friends to perfect their organization, and no legitimate means should be spared to bring every voter, favorable to our cause, to the polls. To that end we most earnestly recommend to our friends to organize, at once, Seymour and Blair Clubs in every County and every District, with active canvassers, whose duty, among other things, it shall be, to see that all our friends, entitled to vote, are duly registered and brought to the polls, and that unqualified persons are not allowed to register or vote.

Col. Ed. Graham Haywood, of Raleigh, being called out, responded in a most powerful and splendid argument, of considerable length, which was listened to with earnest attention and great pleasure.

Upon motion of F B. Satterthwaite, Esq., a Committee of one from each Congressional District, to recommend an Executive Committee for the State at large, was ordered; whereupon the President appointed Col. Latham, of Washington, E. A. Wright, of Wayne, D. S. Cowan, of Brunswick, H. W. Husted, of Wake, G. N. Thompson, of Caswell, E. A. Osborne, of Mecklenburg, and W. W. Fleming, of McDowell.

Mr. Duffy, of Greensboro, was next called out and responded in an animated and admirable speech, which literally "brought down the House," at almost every sentence. He said that he was of Northern birth, but his heart was with those who were battling for constitutional liberty, &c. Further report deferred. Mr. Duffy's speech was one of the great features of the great Convention, and, when he concluded, the Cumberland delegation proposed three cheers for this gallant son of Michigan, which were responded to with rounds.

The Committee to report an Executive Committee recommended the following, which was unanimously confirmed:

RESIDENT CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

M A Bledsoe,
R C Badger,
Seaton Gales,
Bryan Grimes,
E G Haywood,
D G Fowle,
A S Merrimon.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

1st Dist Chas Latham, of Washington,
2nd " W G Morrisey, of Wayne,
3rd " J A Engelhard, of New Hanover,
4th " Jas S Amis, of Granville,
5th " A M Scales, of Rockingham,
6th " R M Oates, of Mecklenburg,
7th " A C Avery, of Burke.

Mr Hutchison, of Mecklenburg, offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the enormous and unwise appropriations and reckless extravagance of the party now in possession of the State Government, by burdening the property-holders with excessive taxation, thereby impairing their ability to give remunerative employment to labor, calls for our most unqualified disapprobation, and should meet the most decided condemnation at an impoverished people, at the polls.

Mr. Wilson, of Forsythe, offered the following, which was adopted with acclamation, viz:

Resolved, That the thanks of the people of North Carolina are due to and in their name are hereby tendered to Gov. Worth for the able and faithful discharge of all the duties of his office, and for his manly efforts during a period of great embarrassment and difficulty to maintain the Constitution and preserve the liberties of the people of North Carolina.

The Hon. W. N. H. Smith offered the following, which was unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are due, and are hereby tendered, to Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, for his faithful efforts to uphold the Constitution and to maintain the just rights of the people and States of the South; and it offers to him its cordial congratulations upon the failure of the attempt on the part of a faction to degrade and remove him from office, for no offence, but the maintenance of the Constitution and the most useful functions of his office.

Mr. Smith responded most happily to a call upon him.

Mr. Stokes, of Buncombe, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of North Carolina invite an exchange of speakers between the North and South, during the present campaign.

Resolved, That, in case this invitation is accepted at the North, the Executive Committee be requested to select two or more of our ablest speakers and best men to go North and represent to the masses of that section the true political feelings and condition of our people.

Mr. Hill, of Franklin, offered the following, which was adopted with loud and continued acclamations, viz:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be, and are hereby, unanimously tendered to the Ladies of Raleigh, for the patriotism and taste exhibited in their beautiful and appropriate decoration of this Hall.

On motion of Mr. Wright, of Wayne, the thanks of the Convention were unanimously tendered to the officers of the Convention.

The President then, in some very happy remarks, after a motion to that effect, declared the GREAT CONVENTION adjourned sine die.

APOLOGY.—We owe a number of our daily subscribers on the Western and Fayetteville route an apology for failing to furnish them the Daily, on yesterday. We had a large edition printed off on yesterday, anticipating a large demand for it, but the demand was so great that when we came to put up our Western mail, the edition gave out. We, therefore, send them the Semi-Weekly to-day, containing all the proceedings of the State Convention. We hope they will bear with us under the circumstances.

OUR READERS will please bear with us a few days till we can get over the enthusiasm, excitement and fatigue of the glorious State Convention just held. We will atone amply for all neglect exhibited by our columns for several days.

WARREN.—The grand ratification meeting at Warrenton on Saturday last was a great success, and her delegates were here at the State Convention in full force.

The Great Torchlight Procession!

THOUSANDS IN LINE!!

RALEIGH ABLAZE WITH LIGHT!

SPEECHES, INCIDENTS, &c.

Pursuant to the published Programme, the great Procession was formed on Fayetteville Street, at 8 o'clock, P. M., on Thursday night.

The Seymour and Blair Club, of Raleigh, the Fire Companies, (in tasteful uniform,) the Bucket Company, and "Young America," fell into line in front of the Executive Mansion, fully equiped with transparencies and large and beautiful colored lanterns.

Hundreds upon hundreds of enthusiastic Conservatives and Democrats surrounded the blazing bonfires, lighting up their transparencies or kindling their torches. Higher up, the Cumberland delegation was being formed.

Still higher, the Wilmington Clubs were being marshalled into ranks, near the Yarborough House, which was brilliantly lighted.

From the front of the Governor's Mansion, the spectacle was truly magnificent—the street was fairly ablaze—presenting a grand, glistening, moving panorama of vari colored lights; while the flames of beacon fires, the glare of rockets, Roman candles and Union torches caused the stellar host to pale for a while "their ineffectual fires."

Thirty seven large transparencies, named for the several States of the Union, and adorned with appropriate mottoes, were distributed to stalwart bearers adown the line; and the procession moved, at the sound of the signal gun, to music set to the stars of the Union. Thousands of spectators lined the side-walks, bouquets of fair ladies clustered at every lattice and throng'd every balcony and portico, on the line of march, waving their kerchiefs in greeting.

We have neither time nor space to particularize, nor to attempt a synopsis of the many cheering and patriotic addresses elicited.

Halting first in front of the residence of Seaton Gales, Esq., which was brilliantly lighted, speeches, brief but pertinent and stirring, were made successively by Maj. Gales, of the Sentinel, and Maj. J. A. Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal. On the opposite side of the street, the residence of W. H. Jones, Esq. was also illuminated and the portico and steps alive with ladies and snowy with the waving of handkerchiefs. Here General Matt. W. Ransom, of Northampton, responded most handsomely to the call of his fellow Democrats, and was greeted, as were the other speakers, with hearty cheers. Next, to the Yarborough House moved the grand Panorama. Blair had illumined most cheerfully, and here a speech was elicited from W. A. Jenkins, Esq., of Warren. Hence amid boom of cannon, and music and cheering, the line of lights moved up Fayetteville Street to Union Square, through Morgan and Salisbury Streets, to Hillsboro Street, and up Hillsboro Street, beyond the corporate limits, to St. Mary's School. The three large buildings here were brightly illumined from garret to basement, and the steps, balconies, porches and casements were luminous with ladies, who gave the procession an ovation of smiles and of kerchiefs, and received payment, with interest, in cheer after cheer.

Almost every house on the way was illuminated, and in this particular the Democratic demonstration furnishes a complete contrast to the parade and jubilation of the Radicals over the State election—then every respectable tenement, nearly, was dark as the grave.

Returning from St. Mary's, down Hillsboro' Street, the procession filed Eastward into McDowell Street, calling at the residences of Gov. Bragg and Mrs. H. L. Evans, where fine speeches, having the ring of the right metal, were made by Gov. B., and Senator Robbins, the gallant Conservative champion from Rowan.

Moving thence to the residence of the late Hon. George E. Badger, on Edenton St., the patriotic pageant was greeted by another pageant that awoke the wildest enthusiasm. The whole front of the mansion was luminous with many colored lights, illustrating the names of "Seymour and Blair," surrounding the coat of arms of the United States—"not a stripe erased, nor a single star obscured." Here, stirring, eloquent and felicitous speeches were made by Messrs. F. B. Satterthwaite, of Pitt, David M. Carter, of Hyde, and R. C. Badger, Esq.

Cheering away most lustily, the vanguard marched thence down Wilmington Street to the residence of Dr. Thos. D. Hogg, where Col. R. H. Cowan, President of the Convention, addressed the Democracy in his happiest style. Returning to the South front of Union Square, where preparations had been made for a grand Balloon ascension, Hon. Daniel G. Fowle was loudly called for, and addressed the procession in a speech sanguine of victory and cheering to every heart.

BALLOON ASCENSION.

Under the supervision of Mr. T. T. Fentress, three large and elegant balloons, inscribed with the names of "Seymour and Blair," were speedily inflated and rose gracefully into the air amid ringing huzzas. They floated upward and South-westward, dwindling into stars in their grand exaltation.

Thus closed this grand and glorious demonstration, and the different delegations dispersed to their respective quarters, and the citizens to their homes.

The chief Marshal, Major B. C. Manly, and his Corps of assistants, did their duty effectively and well. Of these, however, and many little incidents of the magnificent celebration, we will take occasion to speak hereafter. More particularly than we have done, we must notice the noble Cumberland and New Hanover delegations, and the display they made especially in the procession.

The following were the thirty-seven transparencies, provided for by the Seymour and Blair Club of Raleigh, viz:

DISTRICT ELECTORS.—It will be seen, by reference to the proceedings in another column, that Thomas J. Jarvis, Esq. has been selected as Elector for the Fourth District. This is a capital selection, and Capt. Jarvis will do his whole duty.

An equally fortunate selection has been made in the Second District, in the choice of Maj. Jno. Hughes, of Newbern. Maj. H. is a gallant and able gentleman, who will make a thorough and efficient canvass.

LEGISLATURE.

The House, on yesterday, concurred in the Senate substitute for the Special Militia Bill, so that that infamous Bill is now a law. It was ably but fruitlessly resisted by Messrs. Durham, Argo and Sinclair, but the gag was put on and the iniquity was consummated.

In this connection, we would state that the necessity for the presence of Messrs. Durham and Argo at the House prevented their attendance upon the Democratic Convention, and response to the calls which were made upon them.

In the Senate but little of general interest was done, except the passage of the bill amending the charter of the Chatham Railroad, and the adoption of the House resolution, which fixes the adjournment on the 24th inst, instead of the 17th, as heretofore agreed upon.

TERRIBLY SCARED.—The late magnificent demonstration in this City has carried alarm into the ranks of the Radical-reels. They do not know what to make of this grand and mighty out-pouring of the people. They see the "hand-writing on the wall," and their guilty knees smite together in alarm and terror, at the prospect of the utter defeat which awaits them in November.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR MEETINGS.

In lieu of publishing the proceedings in full of the many Seymour and Blair meetings held in every county in the State, which we have been requested to publish, but which we find it utterly beyond our space to do, we shall be greatly obliged to our friends, in all the counties of the State, to send us letters of correspondence, noticing the meetings which have been held and the Clubs formed, in brief, and an account of the progress of the cause in each county. As the State Convention is over, to which many of these meetings have reference, it is thought that this suggestion would be preferable to the publication of the lengthy proceedings of the several meetings.

The North Carolina Railroad is offering excursion tickets to Morehead city and return, for one fare. A fine opportunity for a nice trip is here offered the pleasure seekers.—Greensboro' Times.

Hundreds of gentlemen in the counties West of Raleigh were anxious to enjoy the pleasure of a trip to Raleigh, during the Democratic State Convention, but Billy Smith refused our application to afford the accommodation to delegates, for one fare, thus depriving the people of the privilege and calling off the receipts of the Road several thousand dollars perhaps. More than this, he raised the fare on the Road from four to six cents per mile, we learn, a few days before the Convention, which largely cut off the travel to this City. We presume the remonstrances of the Directors and Stockholders have caused him to change his plan, and we learn that the fare has been changed back to the original price.

Mr. Smith's apology or reason for his course, in his reply to us, in refusing to allow delegates to travel for one fare to the Democratic State Convention, was that his predecessor had pursued the same course, and he was disposed to follow a good example. The public, and all who look to the interests of the Railroads, believe that the custom should be universal that the fare should always be so fixed for Conventions of all kinds as to obtain the largest amount of travel. If Mr. Smith's predecessor did not do this, there were reasons for it at the time which he can no doubt explain; but as a general rule Mr. Smith ought not to have followed the example. Mr. Smith's refusal to allow the the extra train from Wilmington to run on the people's Railroad, as they had heretofore been allowed to do, was not a very profitable job for the N. C. Railroad. Billy, in his anxiety to head off the Democrats and Conservatives, must not "cut off his nose to spite his face."

COL. COWAN, AT SELMA.—During the recent thrilling speech of Col. Cowan, at Selma, he was led to notice the charge made by the Standard and others, against Gen. Blair, in regard to stealing horses, silver plate, &c., belonging to non-combatants and appropriating them to his own use.—Col. Cowan admitted that it might be true, that Gen. Blair, acting under the orders of Gen. Sherman and he under the orders of his superior, Gen. Grant, might have done as all the rest did, who stole whatever they could lay their hands on, but then there was this important difference between General Blair and the rest of the Radicals: when the war ended, Gen. Blair had quit stealing, but the rest of them had kept it up till now.—For what had become of the $1,500,000,000, of the people's money collected from them since 1865, and where was the money of the people of North Carolina going, which fell into the hands of the hungry cormorants who have gotten control of affairs?

THOMASVILLE BAND.—Our citizens, universally, were most favorably impressed with the gentleman composing this Band. They came down to the Convention, we believe, at their own expense, and added greatly, by their presence, to the enthusiasm of the occasion. They discoursed excellent music in the intervals between the speeches, &c., in the Convention, and in the great celebration of Thursday night. The gentlemen composing this Band are worthy and excellent young men—and are all good Democrats and Conservatives. All success to them!

A PUBLIC barbecue is to be given at the W. R. Moore place, in Johnston county, by the Conservative party, on the 4th Thursday in August.

The people of the county are invited to attend, and, also, of the adjoining counties. Several of the best orators of the State are expected; among others, Hon. Z. B. Vance.

The nearest point of Railroad (Clayton) is 8 miles.

A Mass Meeting of the Conservative party of Person County is called to meet in Roxboro', on Thursday, the 27th inst.—Several distinguished speakers from abroad are expected.

"Mr. Speaker, I am alarmed at the condition of the country. It is proposed to send arms to North Carolina, that the people may use them each at each other. Great God! I am ashamed to fight such stuff as KEEP AWAY YOUR ARMS! DO NOTHING TO IRRITATE OUR PEOPLE, BUT DO EVERYTHING IN YOUR POWER TO ASSUAGE AND HEAL THE EXCITEMENT THERE. We want no arms. I WARN THE HOUSE THAT IF ARMS ARE SENT THERE WE WILL BE RUINED; we cannot live there. If we need anything in the way of arms, in God's name send an army of the United States there, but do not arm neighbor against neighbor. There never was a more mischievous measure, than this proposition to arm one class of our people against another."—Mr. Boyden's speech in the House of Representatives.

"When the storm is over, the Conservative party, representing, as it does, THE PROPERTY AND INTELLIGENCE OF THE STATE, will take the guidance of affairs, AND ALL WILL BE WELL."—Judge Pearson's Letter.

In their despair, Radicals threaten civil war, in order to make a fair and free election by the people of North Carolina impossible.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." What does he mean but that the "Empire is peace!"

ELECTORAL MEETING OF THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

At a meeting of the delegates of the First Congressional District, held in the parlor of the Yarborough House, on Thursday evening, the 13th. inst., on motion, Major Henry A. Gilliam, of Chowan, was called to the Chair, and Jordan Stone, of Halifax, appointed Secretary.

Upon a call of the Counties composing the District, eleven were found to be represented.

Upon motion, it was decided to go into the nomination of an Elector for said District, and, on further motion, it was decided that the nomination should be made upon the basis of representation in the House of Representatives.

An election being proceeded with, resulted in the selection of Thos. J. Jarvis, of Currituck, as Elector for the District.

Mr. Jarvis accepted the nomination with a few appropriate remarks, expressing his determination to use his best exertions to prove himself worthy the position which had been accorded him.

On motion, the following named gentlemen were recommended as Sub-Electors for the different counties composing the District:

NORTHAMPTON.—Jas Odom, Capt R B Peebles, Thos W Mason, Henry C Edwards, Edmund Jacobs, Capt Emory Martin and Capt Geo Barnes.

HALIFAX.—E Conigland, R H Smith, Capt W A Kerr, Col Frank Parker, Col David C Clark, Capt Wm H Day, Blount Pope and S Whitaker.

CURRITUCK.—Dr Wm Lesselle, P H Morgan, Col J M Woodhouse and S B Jarvis.

GATES.—Dr O B Savage, Mills L Eure, Jno T Gatlin and Riddick Gatlin.

FROM WASHINGTON—BUTLER'S ZOUAVES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14th, P. M.

The cabinet was full, except Welles, Schofield and Randall.

A company of Butler's Zouaves, marching to relieve the guard over Stevens' body, fired a volley down 21st Street, in response to a stone hurled at them. A colored waiter, standing in the door of a residence, was shot through the thigh.

The Express says, that when they reached the Capitol, some disagreement arose between themselves, and they had a regular free fight.

The Star, after speaking of the firing and its results, says: "A large crowd immediately gathered, and, for a time, there was every prospect of a serious disturbance, but the police was on duty, as well as the reserve, and, appearing in force, promptly, by surrounding the Zouaves, checked further proceedings, and when order was restored, they were allowed to proceed."

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, Aug 14, P. M.

The veto of the Governor to Radical measures in the Legislature created intense feeling among the extreme members. A break is imminent between the Radicals and moderate Republicans.

Intelligence received indicates an arming of negroes in different portions of the State.—Threats of violent leaders publicly say that captains are on every plantation and the whites anticipate serious trouble.

The Governor failed to make a loan of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. The members are grumblin,, and the people talk of refusing to pay taxes.

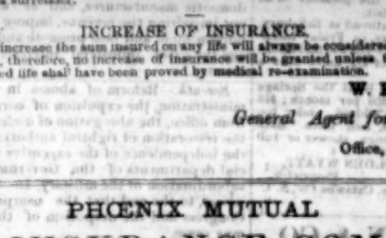
ASSETS, $10,000,000



DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.
Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein; but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries' rate of mortality and four per cent. interest;" and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur WITHIN OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance, and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

General Agent for the State,
Office, Raleigh, N. C.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would care to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guaranteed pledges given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of country and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate means; and the utter destruction of Radicalism everywhere by the election of Horatio Seymour, of New York, as President, and Francis P. Blair, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We whose names are hereto annexed, do severally pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and all to be held by the Treasurer, who at all times keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also money donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as corresponding, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order; and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board; when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial affairs as may be necessary. All business of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraudulent or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits or legal proceedings.

Certificate of loan to which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, re subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is on all for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of the assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under this law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.
